

JOB TITLE:	Pricing and Reinsurance Part-Qualified Actuary
POSITION REPORTS TO:	Head of Product Development and Pricing
DEPARTMENT:	Pricing
LOCATION:	Dublin
BACKGROUND	Allied Global is a rapidly growing cross-border life insurer with products sold into the French, Italian and German markets, and, more recently Greek and Lithuanian markets. It also reinsures a portfolio of variable annuities sold in Taiwan and Japan. Its goal is to expand into other markets over the coming years, while also continuing to expand its product range. It currently writes unit linked, variable annuity and protection business.
MAIN PURPOSE OF ROLE:	Perform pricing and profit testing for new protection, unit linked and investment guarantee products. Perform re-pricing of existing portfolio where needed. Implement the reinsurance strategy in line with risk appetite of the company.
MAIN RESPONSIBILITIES:	Liaise with actuarial, risk and finance departments to set pricing assumptions. Maintain and further develop adequate pricing models for the various lines of business while implementing Company and Group guidance on pricing and profit testing. Prepare reports on profit testing for presentation to approval committees. Assist with the management of the reinsurance strategy of the company keeping in mind both commercial considerations and risk appetite Conduct ongoing review of technical and market prices for existing business to monitor portfolio profitability and solvency impacts. Provide ad-hoc advice on pricing related issues. Technical knowledge of pricing methodologies and modelling. Highly numerate, qualified actuary with life insurance experience. Understanding of options and guarantees is helpful along with economic scenario generation and stochastic projections.

KEY
REQUIREMENTS,
SKILLS AND EXPERIENCE:

Able to build relationships with other departments and external contacts.

Coding skills (VBA, SQL, R) and experience in actuarial software (Atlas, MoSes) or an interest in developing these.

Good market knowledge , pan-European experience is useful.

Ability to work on multiple projects and keep track of deadlines.

Able to communicate technical detail in a straightforward manner.